

Intro Pride Transcript

When we asked the students about their overall thought on their participation in social justice, religious and cultural clubs, they talked about the importance of feeling that they could achieve something, that they could make a difference, even as one person. They also talked about the importance of the celebration of their clubs and how it opened their minds.