

Intro Advice for Peers Transcript

The advice that students give to other students about joining religious, social justice or cultural clubs is that they should get involved. They stressed the importance of the fact that we are living in a multicultural society and that through these types of clubs students will participate more, they will grow, and they will have a better time in high school and the world beyond.