

Intro Discrimination Transcript

When we asked the students about how these types of clubs challenged any discriminatory views, they were in agreement that it definitely would break down stereotypes and it would increase tolerance if they were in different cultural and religious clubs.