

Intro Pride 2 Transcript

When students were asked as to why they joined a religious, cultural or social justice club, one of the main reasons was that they felt like they were students looking from the outside in. They wanted to feel included. So this pushed them to join these types of clubs so they would feel a part of the central core of their school.